BCG segment

In Q4'25, the segment's revenue recorded a significant year-on-year decline, but came in above our assumptions. In line with expectations, vaccine sales were marginal, which means that the company fulfilled the remaining part of the order from the Ministry of Health during the period. Most of the contracted volume was delivered in Q3'25, leaving only a small portion to be completed in the period under review. Sales of Onko BCG exceeded our assumptions and amounted to PLN 10.3m. We note that the Q4'24 base is very high due to the accumulation of orders in that period, while the result achieved is the second-highest in the history of this product.

Traditional segment

Sales in the traditional segment continue to be driven mainly by Distreptaza. After two quarters of very weak sales, volumes are gradually returning to regular levels. In our view, the limited sales volume of Lakcid resulted from the sale of remaining inventories.

Sales of the entire group declined by 40.1% y/y, which is in line with our forecasts. The Q4'24 base was significantly inflated relative to other periods, so we assess Q4'25 revenue as neutral. At the gross profit level, the margin came in as a positive surprise, which is a good sign for the coming periods.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by 12.4% y/y, while we had assumed they would remain at a similar level y/y due to higher bonuses for sales representatives in Q4'24. The most significant factor weighing on the result was other operating expenses, which included an impairment allowance on trade receivables from an unrelated entity that had lost the ability to fully meet its obligations. The value of the impairment allowance amounted to PLN 6.5m. The increase in SG&A expenses and the recognition of the impairment allowance led to a decline in operating profit to PLN -7.8m and EBITDA to PLN -4.6m. The net loss amounted to PLN -6.9m, compared with a net profit of PLN 7.0m a year earlier.

We assess the Q4'25 results negatively, but emphasize that the significant deterioration in results was affected by a one-off event resulting from external factors. Adjusted for the impairment allowance, EBITDA would have amounted to PLN 1.9m, while the net loss would have been PLN -0.4m.

The company is facing liquidity issues. The increase in costs related to the implementation of an intensive investment programme and the significant decline in sales led to a breach of covenants set out in agreements with financial institutions and the company's main creditor, ACP. Synthaverse entered into an agreement with ACP under which a mechanism was established to address the situation, assuming that the breached financial ratios will be maintained in 2025 and in H1'26.

The company determined that its financing needs may amount to approximately PLN 30m. These funds are needed to service existing debt and finance the company's day-to-day operations. They are expected to be raised through a divestment process. In connection with the change in the method of bacterial propagation and the doubling of batch volumes, the management board reviewed production capacity and decided on a divestment worth approximately EUR 30m, or alternatively on establishing strategic cooperation with a partner, assuming the refinancing of current debt and liquidity support for the company. These measures are expected to be neutral for production capacities adequate to the planned development of the business.

Alternatively, if the divestment is delayed in H1'26, the company plans to issue shares in order to strengthen its balance sheet and raise funds to service current debt and finance operations. The issue will be carried out if the company's assumptions regarding the divestment are not met.

To prepare this analytical report BDM has not considered individual needs or situations of customers. BDM is not obliged to guarantee that a financial instrument or financial instruments covered by this report are appropriate for a given investor.

Opinions of an analyst and any recommendations included in this report neither constitute an investment, legal, accounting or tax advice or a statement that any investment strategy is adequate or appropriate because of individual circumstances concerning the customer, nor constitute personal recommendation.

The analysis is for information purposes only and does not constitute an advertisement or an offer or an invitation to subscribe or purchase financial instruments.

An investor should be aware that each investment decision in the capital market is subject to numerous risks that finally can result in a financial loss suffered by him. The return rate on individual investments can fluctuate depending on various factors beyond the control of the investor. Therefore, a customer who makes a single investment decision should not only check currency and correctness of individual assumptions made by the analyst in the report but also have an independent assessment and own analysis (also based on scenarios other than the ones presented in the report) taking into consideration the level of acceptable risk. When deciding on activity on the capital market the investor should take into consideration the fact that the investment portfolio structure (diversification of investment through possessing more than one financial instrument) can reduce risk exposure to an individual instrument bringing a negative rate of return in a given period. At the same time, however, it can lead to limitation of a positive rate of return the investor could achieve in the case of a single financial instrument in a given time period. The investor should be aware that the investment portfolio structure and any investment strategy for the stock market do not guarantee the achievement of a positive rate of return and do not protect him against final loss.

For the first time this report has been made available to the public on 04.05.2026 (08:55 CEST). Date of preparing the report is the date of making it accessible. Before the recommendation was made accessible, information included in it had been confidential.

The prices of the financial instruments listed in the document have been taken from the real-time pricing as provided by Bloomberg. Data concerning financial instrument prices used in the report could be loaded to 24 hours before the moment of completing the report.
